Purpose of Position: To plan and facilitate Girl Scout program activities for a group of girls, in partnership with adult volunteers in the area assigned. A Program Aide is a specialist; a service minded Girl Scout, a camper at heart, a teenager, a girl role model, and a researcher in a Leadership development program.

Accountable to: [ ] PA Advisor: Sara Allen and Heidi Davis [ ] Unit Leader: [ ] Program Director: [ ] Day Camp Director: Leslie DeRham (Tigger)

Working Relationships: Parent/Guardian, PA Advisor, Camp Director (s), Health Supervisor, Program Director, Unit Leader(s), Unit Counselor(s), Program Aides and Campers

- Primary Duties: 1. Demonstrate an understanding of working with younger girls, including group dynamics, and group management techniques. 2. Attend scheduled volunteer staff training sessions as requested. 3. Contribute to the physical and mental well being of every Girl Scout camper. 4. Provide in-group presentations that demonstrate your knowledge of the age level appropriate activities and progression, with clear communication and safety concerns for the activity. 5. Serve as a positive role model for younger girls, including following all established rules in the Camp community and of Girl Scouts of Western Washington, and modeling appropriate behavior in a group environment. 6. Commit to attendance at the Camp in a timely manner as assigned, or to notify the Advisor in advance, if attendance is not possible. 7. Evaluate your Leadership role and participation in the Camp community.

I agree to participate in Day Camp as stated above and not assume adult responsibilities, including:

- 1) I am not to be left alone with younger girls. 2) I am not counted as an adult in girl/adult ratios. 3) I will not serve as a first-aider or lifeguard without an adult present. 4) I will not drive girls or peers during the camp program.

I understand that if my behavior is not appropriate to the camp and to the campers, I will be released from service. I will fulfill the outlined duties as a volunteer, with no monetary compensation.
